PATRICIA HUSIC APPOINTED TO SECOND MILE BOARD

HARRISBURG (October 30, 2007) — Patricia A. Husic, President & CEO of Centric Bank, was appointed to a 3-year term to the Second Mile Southcentral Region Board of Directors. The Second Mile is a statewide nonprofit organization serving the youth of Pennsylvania. It is committed to helping young people achieve their potential as individuals and as community members and providing education and support for their parents and youth service professionals.

In March, 2007 Ms. Husic, led a team of shareholders to acquire and establish Centric Bank and Centric Financial Corporation, where she now serves as President and Chief Executive Officer. Prior to taking the leadership role at Centric Bank, Patti joined Vartan National Bank, serving as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer before being appointed Chief Executive Officer in July, 2005, making her the first woman in Harrisburg to hold that title at a major financial institution. Most recently, Ms. Husic was the recipient of the 2007 Best 50 Women in Business in Pa, awarded by Governor Rendell. Husic's professional memberships include the PICPA and AICPA, Women's Business Network, and she currently serves on the Pennsylvania Bankers Association Board of Directors. She is Vice Chairman of the Steelton Economic Development Corporation and is actively involved in local charitable organizations including the Bishop McDevitt High School Blue-Gold Gala Committee and the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society, where she recently chaired the 2007 Light the Night Walk. She has also participated in various roundtables, such as CREDC's Diversity Conference, to support women in business throughout the community. Ms. Husic is a graduate of Temple University where she earned her B.B.A. in Accounting and Management Information Systems. She is also a Certified Public Accountant in the state of Pennsylvania.
